

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE AUTHORS

PragConsilience is a Research Journal of Pragjyotish College and will be published annually by Pragjyotish College Research Council, Pragjyotish College, Guwahati-09.

This Journal is the first research journal of its kind in the history of Pragjyotish College. The journal has set the ambitious task of critically analysing the complex process of the political, social, economic and cultural transformation. It intends to provide an academic platform to scholars to project issues focused particularly on the North Eastern Region.

The topic coverage of the journal is broad and can encompass a wide variety of topics, related to any branches of science, languages, environment, economics, politics, and social life etc. As a multi-disciplinary and multi-lingual journal, PragConsilience encourages its contributors to submit research papers of relevance to many fields. All research papers should reflect rigorous analysis, critical examination, and creative and innovative thinking. All research papers should be both relevant and accessible to a general population interested in the respective fields.

Editorial Review Process

Since the journal is a peer reviewed journal all papers selected for submission will undergo review by the eminent Reviewers of the specific fields.

Submission Procedure

Articles should be sent through e-mail (pragconsilience@gmail.com) and also as a hardcopy duplicate to the address given below:

To

The Editor,

PRAG CONSILIENCE

Pragjyotish College

Bharalumukh

Guwahati-781 009

Assam

Contact Nos. 9435347132, 9859264499, 9864081828, 9435017775

Author's Declaration

All research articles should be the original work of the authors. The author must declare that the sent paper is an unpublished work and it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Specifications

1. Research article/paper should be within 3000 words.
2. An abstract of not more than 200 words is required. Authors should include 3-6 Keywords in the abstract describing the content of article. Since the journal is multi-lingual in nature and it should be accessible to a general population interested in the respective fields, authors should submit the abstract in English only whatever may be the language of the paper.
4. The language of the Research article/paper may be English, Assamese, Bodo, Bengali and Hindi.
5. The font for
English : Times New Roman;
Vernacular language : Geetanjali;
Hindi : Chanakya.
6. Research Methodology must be followed.

7. There are no publication fees to publish research articles in this journal.

Formatting Guidelines (for Humanities and Social Sciences, Science and Commerce Section)

1. There must be a cover sheet with the title of article, full name, designation, affiliation, address, e-mail address, and contact number.
2. Author's declaration should be put in the cover page.
3. The paper should be typed in MS Word and Font size would be 12 with 1.5 spacing.
4. All tables and figures need to be numbered serially with appropriate title. The place of insertion in the text should be clearly marked.
5. Any relevant photographs, charts, or graphs may be included within the body of the article itself. These should be cited appropriately.
6. The authors should use only British spelling in the text.
7. The research article should follow the following format
 - Introduction
 - Theoretical/Conceptual Background and Review of Literature (if not given in introduction)
 - Objectives of the study
 - Hypotheses (if any)
 - Methodology
 - Results and Discussion /Analysis
 - Conclusion
 - Acknowledgement (Optional)
 - End note (if any)
 - References
8. In the text mention only the Author's surname with the year of publication. Also the page number if a quotation is cited. As for example, Sen (2002) says that
.....(Dreze&Sen, 2004)
According to Sen, "fgfnjkj" (Sen, 2003, p. 154)
9. American Psychological Association (APA) styles for referencing should be followed. Modern Language Association (MLA) may be followed for language subject.
10. Only those references which are cited in the text should remain in the reference list.
11. References should be listed in alphabetical order.
12. All papers must carry full and correct references. Works by multiple authors can be cited in the text as: One report describes 2,123 occurrences (Smith & Williams, 2001). Smith et al. (2001) also discovered that the chicken crossed the road. Multiple references of the same data/information by the same authors should be properly identified e.g (Sharma, 1991a; Sharma, 1991b).

American Psychological Association (APA) Style (Please Refer the books titled Simon of Schustia Handbook Writers (7th Edition) by Lynn Quitman Troyka& Douglas Hesse, published by Pearson Prentice hall, 2005 and the book titled Strategies for Successful Writing- A Rhetoric Research Guide, Reader and Handbook (6th edition) by James A. Reinking, Andrew W. Hart & Robert Von der Osten, 2002 published by prentice Hall, New Jersey) should be followed as follows:

Books

Sen, A.K. (1999). Choice, Welfare and Measurement, New Delhi: Oxford University Press.

Gordon, E.E. & Gordon, E.H. (2003). Literacy in America: Historic journey and contemporary solutions. Westport, CT: Praeger.

Journal Articles

Parke, B., Zeira, Y. & Hatem, T. (1996). International joint venture managers. Journal of International Management. 1(1): 1-29.

Article from Edited Volumes

Sarkar, N. (1997). A note on customary laws of the Tagins. In P C Dutta & D K Duarah (Eds.), Aspects of Customary Laws of Arunachal Pradesh. Directorate of Research, Government of Arunachal Pradesh.

Unpublished Works

Sandee, H. (1995). Innovations in Production, Unpublished PhD Thesis. Amsterdam Free University.

Electronic Copy of an Article available by Search:

Bajaj, M. (2004). Mobile Creches. Retrieved June 21, 2014 from <http://www.indianngos.com/issue/education/interviews/mridulabaja/fullinterview.htm>